Dear Sir:

The above-identified application became unintentionally abandoned under 37 C.F.R. 1.197 following an appeal because no claims stood allowed, even though certain dependent claims were previously indicated to be allowable if rewritten in independent format. Prior to the abandonment of the application two months after the Board's November 19, 2002 Decision on Appeal, Applicants filed on January 17, 2003 an Amendment After Board Decision to rewrite the allowable dependent claims in independent format and to also amend other rejected independent claims to include subject matter that was previously indicated to be allowable. That Amendment After Board Decision was not entered by the primary Examiner and the application was held abandoned in an April 8, 2003 action. Applicants did not intend to abandon the application such that its abandonment under the above circumstances was unintentional.
